Ratepayers, Attention!

In another column will be found a special notice calling a meeting of the ratepayers for another meeting for nomination for Councillors. The meeting will be held at the office of the Secretary-Treasurer (Mr. Austin's office) on Monday, February the 18th.

We have repeated the substance of the notice because of its importance to the town. So much indifference was shown at the nominations for these important offices a week or two ago that it constituted a real disgrace that so little interest should be shown and it is hoped that this time the ratepayers will awaken to the fact that it is their absolute duty to come out and nominate good men for these three positions.

Local Curlers Bring Home the Silverware

Didsbury rather stepped into the limelight of curling last week on the occasion of the Red Deer bonspiel. One rink only represented Didsbury, consisting of T. Thompson, A. Brusso, J. Miller and E. Freeman skip, but according to their playing it was a fine representation.

The bonspiel lasted three days and there were four competitions. In the Grand Challenge and D. E. Black, the first two competitions, they were defeated thus letting them in for the consolation, and they won in the Real Estate draw. From then on they cleaned up everything that came along and won eight games straight capturing two Cups and the prizes. The Cups are now on view in the window of the Hub Grocery.

In the Grand Challenge and D. E. Black competitions Freeman lost to Welliver of Red Deer with whom he was drawn in each. In the Real Estate Freeman won from Munn Red Deer; Berry, Red Deer; Lindsay Red Deer and Calder of Lacombe. In the consolation he won from Fox of Innisfail; Orton, Innisfail; Beckett, Red Deer and Samis of Olds.

The Calgary spiel is now on in full swing and a rink consisting of D. Shepherd, J. McGhee, E. Freeman and J. Miller skip, are attending from Didsbury. We hope they make as fine a showing there as the other rink did in Red Deer.

Where Canada Should Emulate Britain

In a recent article in this column the opinion was expressed that during 1924 the people of Canada should vigorously attack the problem of debt reduction, and that the effort should include all Governments and individuals. Many people have learned by bitter experience just how great a millstone around their necks is a burden of debt. The resulting worry has undermined their health, handicapped their efforts, and made otherwise assured progress impossible. And what is true of individuals is equally true of Governments and nations if people would only fully realize it.

The imperative necessity of boldly facing and tackling the problem of debt reduction in Canada is emphasized by a recent newspaper despatch from Ottawa giving Canada's net debt on December 31st last as $2,415,538,100, an increase during the year of $3,941,949. That is to say, five years after the close of the war, Canada's national debt, instead of being reduced, is still increasing.

It is a favorite excuse for present heavy taxation that we are paying for the war, and that when so many thousands paid with their lives and in crippled bodies and impaired health, we should not object to paying with our dollars. Canadians, almost without exception, are willing and ready, even anxious, to pay for the war. But how can it be said, with a still increasing debt five years after the war, we are paying for the war? True, we are paying over one hundred millions a year interest on the war debt and some tens of millions more annually in pensions and re-establishment of soldiers, and to that extent are paying for the war. But this is not enough, because the national burden is not being reduced but is being carried on indefinitely into the future.

In other words, despite our heavy taxation, we are not paying one cent towards reduction of the war debt. On the contrary, further increases in the debt only prove that we are not even paying our way under peace conditions. The imposition of taxes has reached a point where they constitute a real obstacle to further development and industrial and business expansion which the Dominion so badly needs. Not additional taxation, therefore, but drastic reduction in expenditures is called for.

Contrast what Canada is doing with what has already been accomplished in Great Britain. During the first fiscal year after the war, 1919-20, Britain's revenue amounted to £1,352,000,000 while expenditures totalled £1,665,000,000. Four years later, 1922-23, the revenue was £2,144,000,000 and expenditures £2,122,000,000. Thus in four years Britain's revenue declined about one-third, due in part to lowering of taxation, but expenditures were cut down by one-half, a very striking accomplishment. But Britain is not satisfied and further economies are being introduced.

The United States is likewise steadily reducing its war debt and is now contemplating important reductions in taxation.

It is high time Canada followed the example of these other English-speaking countries. It has been argued in defence of the new six per cent. sales tax which went into effect in Canada on January 1, that it is to pay for the war. If this is true, then why not set aside the proceeds of this tax in a special debt redemption fund and not absorb it into the general revenues of the Dominion? It would be paid much more cheerfully if the people of Canada saw its beneficial effects year by year in a reduction of the principal amount of their war debt.

In preparing the estimates annually, the Finance Minister always includes an amount to cover interest charges on the national debt. The payment of such interest is a first charge on the revenues of the Dominion. In like manner, it would now seem advisable to include a fairly substantial amount in the estimates for payment on account of the principal amount of the national debt, and to pay that amount off without any failure. Such annual payments on principal would operate to reduce interest charges, and as interest payments were reduced the amount paid annually on principal could and should be increased, thus retiring the debt at an ever-increasing rate.

In order to make this possible, current national expenditures should be vigorously attacked and reduced to a point where these payments on debt account could be made. Only when Canada adopts some such method can it truthfully be said that we are at last paying for the war. Until such a policy is adopted, and strictly adhered to, Canada is not getting anywhere; the Dominion is not even "marking time," but is getting a little deeper into debt every year.

Where Londoners Are Born

Out of Every Three Persons Living in London One is Country-Born

Somebody has been investigating the birthplace of residents in London. He announces that out of every three persons now living in London proper, one is country-born; that is, about a million and a half of the city's population are not "natives." About one in four were born in the neighboring counties of Middlesex, Essex, Kent, and Surrey, Kent having sent us 100,000 and Surrey 71,000 persons. There is a general impression that there are as many Scots in London as in Edinburgh, but as a matter of fact London has only 50,000 Scots, as against 51,000 Irish. All the British dominions overseas have contributed together about 32,000 people; and about three per cent. of those who live in the metropolis are foreigners.

HEADACHES FOR WEEKS

They Soon Disappear After Using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

Every woman, at times, finds the routine of housework irksome. But how much more difficult are the daily tasks of the home to the woman who is nervous and rundown? She prepares meals for the family, but has no appetite for food. What she does eat distresses her, headaches and dizziness follow, there is a fluttering of the heart, and the complexion becomes pale. In cases of debility of this kind building up the blood is generally effective. By improving the quality of the blood and increasing its quantity, nourishment is carried to the shattered nerves. The appetite invariably improves and gradually the exhausted system is toned up and the whole outlook of life is brightened. Mrs. Geo. Grant, R.R. No. 1, Markdale, Ont., tells for the benefit of others the great benefit Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were to her in a rundown condition. She says: "If anyone can strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I feel I can. For over four years I had been troubled with my nerves, and for weeks at a time I would suffer terribly with headaches. My blood was very thin, I had no appetite, could hardly go about. I was afraid to stay alone in the house as I feared something would happen to me. Finally I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and they have made me a new woman, as I am now the picture of health. I have increased in weight, the headaches come no more, and my nerves are as good as ever they were. Before I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills life was a burden; now I enjoy living, and I hope some other woman will take courage from my experience, for I feel sure that what this medicine did for me it can do for others."

You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

FIFTY MILLION INCREASE IN DEPOSITS REPORTED BY ROYAL BANK OF CANADA

Bank Makes Remarkable Progress in Past Fiscal Year. Position Further Strengthened by Holdings of Short Term Securities. Earnings Well Maintained

A gain of fifty millions in deposits, liquid assets of approximately 50 per cent. and cash amounting to no less than 28 per cent. of liabilities to the public are among the outstanding features of a remarkably strong statement which The Royal Bank of Canada is forwarding to its shareholders for the fiscal year ending November 30th. A $50,000,000 gain in deposits is really phenomenal under conditions that prevailed during the past year and must be accepted as unmistakable testimony of the confidence that is everywhere placed in this strong Canadian banking institution. What will make such a large gain still more satisfactory from the shareholders' standpoint is that owing to the general character of the business done by the Bank there are no especially large deposits of any nature.

General Position Further Strengthened

The general business of the Bank continues to show an expanding tendency. Total assets are now $538,358,554, as compared with $479,362,366 for the previous year, or a gain of about $59,000,000. Liquid assets are $232,125,474, as compared with $216,048,331, while cash on hand amounts to $81,604,539, against $71,935,920 a year ago. In the liquid assets a number of other large increases are shown, the principal being a gain in short term government securities. Dominion and Provincial Government securities now stand at $28,783,050, up from $22,950,224, and Canadian, Municipal and British, Foreign and Colonial Government securities, other than Canadian, amount to $15,900,363, against $7,901,927 a year ago. Call loans total $46,372,574, compared with $48,610,020 last year.

Larger Business Handled

In the many fields of industry and commerce served by the Bank there has evidently been a demand for increased accommodation. This is reflected in a gain in current loans, which now stands at $264,722,967 against $242,807,776. During 1923 the balance due to the Dominion Government of $17,461,750, reported a year ago, has been entirely paid off.

Growth in Deposits

In the large gain of $50,000,000 in deposits it is to be noted that those in the Savings Department now amount to $311,759,127, as compared with $277,595,882, an increase of no less than $34,163,245 for the year.

Earnings Well Maintained

The earnings for the year were well maintained, profits having amounted to $3,909,316. This compares with $3,958,469 in the previous year. The profit added to the balance carried forward from the preceding year brought the total amount available for distribution up to $1,916,830. This was distributed as follows:

Dividends and bonuses to shareholders	$2,856,000
Transferred to Officers' Pension Fund	100,000
Appropriation for Bank Premises	400,000
Reserve for Dominion Government Taxes, including war tax on Bank Note Circulation	475,000 leaving an amount to be carried forward of $1,085,830, as against $1,007,514 at the end of the previous year.

U.F.M. DECIDE ON WHEAT POOL FOR 1924 CROP

Winnipeg.—With but three hands raised in protest out of about 400 registered delegates, the United Farmers of Manitoba decided at their annual convention, to proceed forthwith with the organization of a voluntary contract wheat pool to handle the 1924 crop. Delegates to the convention of United Farm Women, meeting separately at the time, passed the resolution unanimously.

The resolution, which was submitted on behalf of the directors, reads as follows: "That this convention goes on record as approving of a voluntary contract pool for Manitoba on the general basis now operated in Alberta, looking to the formation of an inter-provincial selling agency, and, further, we recommend that this convention instruct the board to proceed immediately to complete organization."

Farm Implement Prices

Report Says Prices May Advance
Owing to Cost of Production

Calgary.—The Calgary Herald says: Prices of farm machinery and implements and equipment will be advanced this season. The advance is estimated at present to be between five and ten per cent. Either the price must be advanced slightly, or the manufacturers of farm implements must go under the hammer, definitely state the larger dealers. Labor and the increased cost of raw materials are given as the principal reasons for the advance of prices.

Maintains Same Position on League of Nations as He Did Four Years Ago

Columbus, Ohio.—James M. Cox, former governor of Ohio and Democratic candidate in the 1920 presidential campaign, maintains the same position on the League of Nations as he did almost four years ago, when he made it the keynote of his campaign for election as chief executive of the United States.

He so informed Ohio Democrats in unequivocal terms here at a dinner at which what were regarded as the opening blasts of the Democratic 1924 campaign in Ohio were sounded. Carrying the League of Nations theme throughout his address, he indicated he believed that the participation of the United States in foreign affairs is still as much a major issue as when he stumped the country in 1920. He gave no intimation, however, as to what his intentions might be in regard to the coming presidential campaign.

It will be recalled that M. Franklin-Bouillon negotiated the convention between France and the Kemalists respecting Asia Minor.

Winnipeg.—"The Friends of Louis Riel" is the name of a society just launched in Winnipeg and St. Boniface with the object of erecting a monument to the leader of the Metis movement of 1869-70 and 1885. The society announces its intention of first doing a great deal of necessary educational work to "clear up the historical data on the times of Riel."

Object to Express Rates

Decline In Drug Traffic

More Stringent Penalties for Offenders Are Provided

Ottawa.—That the narcotic traffic in Canada is on the decline, especially in large cities, where it was on the increase for years, is the opinion, expressed by officials of the federal health department, who support their contention by figures showing imports of narcotics for five years ending with 1923.

More stringent penalties for traffickers and addicts, provided for in an act of parliament passed last session, is credited by enforcement authorities with improving conditions by driving many of the small peddlars out of business and rehabilitating numberless victims.

Figures show that imports of cocaine fell from 12,333 ounces in the fiscal year 1919, to 3,308 in the fiscal year, 1923; morphine from 29,087 in 1919 to 10,995 in 1923; and crude opium from 34,262 in 1919 to 1,373 in 1923.

Had A Weak Heart Was Very Nervous For Three Years

Miss Jessie Peterson, Zealandia, Sask., writes: "I wish to let you know how much good Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me."

For nearly three years I was very badly run down, had a weak heart, and was so nervous that sometimes I would almost faint away.

I heard of many people who had recommended your Heart and Nerve Pills, so I decided to give them a trial. After I had used two boxes I found they had done me good, and after having taken five boxes I was completely relieved.

I cannot recommend your Pills enough, and I would advise anyone having a weak heart or troubled with nervousness to use them."

Milburn's H. & N. Pills are 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Firm Policy Needed To Stamp Out Disease

Leicester, Eng.—The policy of the ministry of agriculture in the wholesale slaughtering of animals infected with foot and mouth disease was endorsed at a conference held here by representatives of many counties. Viscount Deerpur said isolation of affected animals had only resulted in further outbreaks of the disease and the expense had been as great as that of slaughtering the animals.

Adopt Alternative Vote

Will Introduce Legislation to Change System in Manitoba

Winnipeg.—Adoption of the principle of the alternative vote in single-member constituencies where there are more than two candidates contesting the seat, will form the substance of legislation which the Manitoba Government intends introducing during the session of the legislature, it was learned here.

In the last two general elections in Manitoba, there were numerous instances, where, in a contest with three or more candidates in the field, the elected representative of the constituency obtained only a minority of the votes cast.

Could Not Straighten His Back

Then Quebec Man Used Dodd's Kidney Pills

Mr. E. D. Tremblay is delighted with the results obtained.

Pointe Aux Outardes, Que.—(Special).—The sterling value of Dodd's Kidney Pills as a kidney remedy is shown by the following statement of Mr. E. D. Tremblay of this town.

"I have suffered for nearly six years from rheumatism and bad kidneys and was not able to stand up straight. I took 2 boxes of your Dodd's Kidney Pills, and am now completely relieved of my trouble."

What Mr. Tremblay states is all that has ever been claimed for Dodd's Kidney Pills—that they are good for sick kidneys.

It is astounding how some people will go on suffering day after day with aches and pains, rheumatism and backache. They suffer because they are not aware of the fact that they can get relief. Strengthen the kidneys, which are the source of the trouble and these pains vanish. Dodd's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys. They heal and strengthen them so that they do their full work of straining all the impurities out of the blood.

BRITISH HOUSE OPENING IS QUIET AND UNEVENTFUL

London.—The fifth parliament of the present reign opened in a quiet and uneventful manner, apart from some natural effervescence on the part of the Labor members, elated at the prospect of their party taking office, which only a few months ago appeared to be quite a distant prospect.

The re-election of John Henry Whitley as speaker of the new house was a foregone conclusion and therefore afforded no excitement.

Mr. Asquith was absent owing to illness. Mr. Lloyd George entered with but small recognition, and interest was centred elsewhere. The former premier, who heretofore had sat with his section of the Liberal party, signified complete Liberal unity by taking a seat on the opposition bench, next to the one usually occupied by Mr. Asquith.

There was a humorous occurrence as the members arose to follow the Black Rod into the House of Lords to hear the commission read for Parliament. Mr. Macdonald, as leader of the opposition, joined the prime minister, Mr. Baldwin, in the procession; whereupon a Laborite shouted: "Shake hands!" This the two leaders did amidst general cheering.

The new women members of the house attracted much attention. The women Laborites abandoned their hats and took seats temporarily in the members' gallery. Lady Astor was not present, but the Conservative women had a representative in Mrs. Phillips. Mrs. Wintingham was there, and next to her was the newly-elected Lady Terrington.

Ex-Crown Prince Appears

New Cars de Luxe Made in Canada

OF the best of modern improvements to railway service in Canada are the Canadian Pacific combination dining and parlor cars. The new all-steel cars, six in number, will operate on the more important short runs, affording every convenience and luxury, where full size dining and parlor cars are not required. They are the only Cafe Parlor Cars existent which are fitted with a smoking room, and the revolving slumber-back chairs are another distinctive feature.

Interior decoration has been given special consideration by the Company, and the new cars are an extremely well finished product. Inlaid mahogany has been used with good effect, the ceilings have a light brown finish, and the lighting has been arranged to permit reading in any part of the car without strain or glare. Lamps are arranged along the centre of the ceiling, and bracket lamps over each table and chair, all with truscan shades, diffuse a warm glow. The new cars are different from any others doing service in Canada in that they are practically divided into four separate compartments. The kitchen, fully equipped, takes up nearly 16 feet of one end, and in this are found a huge range with ovens and steam tables attached. A charcoal burning grill is placed next the range, and on the other side are the separate refrigerators for meats, fish, fruits, milk, cream and ice cream. Every available inch of flooring seems to be utilized, but there is room enough for three men to work and for the carving tables, sink, dish washer and innumerable lockers for groceries, chinaware, glass, silver, etc. A tank overhead supplies fresh and filtered water for use in the dining room and kitchen. Leaving the kitchen one comes upon a small vestibule which opens into the dining room. Handsome china and silver cabinets can be seen here, and stowed snugly into the corner is a "bar" which will hold a surprisingly large number of bottles, and keep them cool too, because ice may be let into a chamber at the rear, through the roof.

The dining room is 19 feet long and seats 18 people. Three tables each accommodate four diners, and three tables, two. Particularly when lighted, the dining room is most beautiful. The general effect is very rich and soft.

The parlor, over 21 feet long, contains twelve chairs with swivel base and reclining back. There is a good distribution of light for reading, and the compartment is absolutely the last word in comfort.

The smoking room is reached through a short corridor, off which are the wash rooms. This is somewhat smaller, but decidedly more comfortable than the smoking rooms of the standard sleeper or first class coaches. It is over 7 feet long and the two leather sofas accommodate six people with ease.

The new Canadian Pacific cafe parlor cars have their own heating units which is another advantage. They are fitted with cooling fans and the ventilating system has been so arranged as to ensure a complete change of air every few minutes without causing draughts.

These cars are a credit to the Canadian workmanship that has gone into their makeup, and will do much to encourage travel in this part of the continent.

CHILDREN COME TO CANADA ON MAGIC CARPET

DICK ANDERSON STUDIES COMPASS

DESPITE the fact that the Canadian Pacific is the greatest transportation system in the world, it finds it wise and profitable to give individual attention to any little children who may be consigned to its care.

The war broke up families and left orphans in all European countries. Many of these are now being transported to friends and relatives in the United States and Canada. In most cases there is little money the actual passage being all that can be raised, so there is no question of a companion for the child. Here is where the great Canadian Pacific becomes nurse, commander, crapon or guardian for the youth.

ful travellers, transporting them from their homes to the port of embarkation, looking after their comfort and welfare on board ship and finally, delivering them safe and sound to their destinations in Canada or America. These children, as a rule, are cheerful kiddies who soon work their way into the hearts of their fellow travellers who are generally eager to smooth the path before the childish feet.

Above are shown some of the little folks who have recently crossed the Atlantic alone. Keith Herz, an 11-year-old boy, travelled from his home in Uselung on the Russian-Austrian border to Milwaukee. The company's agent at Warsaw accompanied him to Antwerp, whence he sailed on the S.S. Metagama. A very interesting passenger came over on an August run of the S.S. "Melita," a little 6½-year-old Armenian refugee, who is to become the adopted son of western Canadian farmers, a marvellous change from poverty to plenty. Dick Anderson, the boy being shown the working of the compass by Captain Landy of the S.S. "Melita," was the youngest member of a party of boys sent from England to the Dr. Barnardo's Home in North Toronto, Ontario, where waifs from London are given education, a comfortable living and become worthy Canadian citizens.

A Scotch lassie, Rita Tiffey of Dundee, Scotland, boasts of many trophies won by her nimble 9-year-old heels. She owns 4 silver cups and 21 medals won at dancing, and gave much pleasure to all passengers on a recent voyage of the S.S. "Montclair," by executing 16 different dances on her way out to Canada.

"Do you ever think," I ventured, "that Jean's depth of character would perhaps be wasted if she were to marry someone whom she would never need to help?"

Mrs. Mowbray looked at me sharply, the little brown wren of a woman that she is.

"You've hit it exactly," she admitted. "Jean has been mothering young things and weak things and sick things all her life, and that is where Jim gets her—and I wouldn't mind so much if I were sure of him, but what I'm afraid of is that she'll get fond of him and then feel badly when he changes."

"Jim is quite a bit older than Jean, and he is neither weak nor sick," I objected. "He certainly is not a millionaire just now, but Murray always says that he and Bob are so thrifty and hard-working that they cannot miss success. And perhaps he is not so changeable as you think."

Mrs. Mowbray shook her head. "I could never bear red hair," she said, "and that tongue of his! he'd talk the birds off the trees. Give me a quiet man every time."

"Mrs. Mowbray does not welcome competition," laughed Murray when I repeated the conversation to him.

But I, while I doubted Mrs. Mowbray's tact, could understand her. Any mother can, I think. That she had Jean's welfare at heart was obvious, but she was not wise enough to keep her opinion to herself and her openly expressed distrust of Jim prepared Jean's mind for the doubts that cropped up later on.

May brought us a new friend, Mr. Bonar, the student missionary who worked so hard to bring together the unchurch-people of the district. His was a mixed and scattered parish indeed. In the village there were few Presbyterians, some Methodists, two Anglicans, several Lutherans, one Roman Catholic, one Buddhist and two Jews, while in the surrounding country conditions were much the same. But Mr. Bonar had a way of reaching all sorts and conditions of men, and though not all went to the services that were held each Sunday in the Spruce Creek school, all were on the best of terms with "the Padre," even to the Catholic Gagnons and the Buddhist As Sing, and there were none but were glad to see his buckskin pony turn in at the gate.

Mr. Bonar's greatest wish, speaking of temporal things, was to see a church in Spruce Creek. He had "wangled" a large corner lot on Main Street from David Wilson the year before and started a subscription list, hoping that in the spring work would be begun on the building. But last year's poor crop had made it impossible for him to ask for money.

"Two-thirds of the people in the district don't know how to turn to meet their payments," he said to Murray and me one day. "I simply haven't the heart to ask them for anything. In fact, I'd be jolly glad if I could give them some help instead of begging from them."

The following Sunday, Murray returned to the subject as we drove home after church. The school had been crowded, many people, like ourselves, having driven in a long distance to be present, and we had listened to what Mother taught me to call a Seven-Day sermon—a simple, helpful, hopeful, heart-to-heart talk that gave one something to hold to throughout the week.

"We are going to build that church," said Murray suddenly.

"But how can we?" I asked. "No one has any money."

"No, but we have time and materials, ain't we?" Murray interrupted. "If a suburban congregation in Winnipeg can build its own church I don't see why we shouldn't. I'll suggest to Bonar that we find out how much assistance we may count on from the Home Mission Committee, and then we'll get to work. We can haul timber and have it sawn during the winter, get in our stone and lime, and then begin to build as soon as seedling is over next spring. We'll not need a very big place and a few days work from each man will soon see us with a church that will have cost us nothing in actual cash, except for the materials that we have to get out from the city. Bonar will be ordained next spring, and nothing could be better for Spruce Creek than for him to come to us permanently, surely among us all we can afford to pay our share of his salary—you know, I suppose, what an augmented charge is?" finished the minister's son.

"Yes," I replied meekly, "you mean that the Home Mission Committee is responsible for a part of the minister's salary."

Murray nodded absent-mindedly, and I knew that he was far ahead of me, settling the details of his scheme. I never dare to tell him that Mr. Bonar spoke of him to me afterwards as "a power for good in the community," for Murray hated to be praised in set phrases. It was comparatively safe to tell him that he had a good head on his shoulders, but "a power for good," he would have been sure to say, was laying it on a bit too thick. Even I had to be careful in such matters, what Murray felt most deeply did not easily come to the surface, and he would have been made very uncomfortable had he been given publicly the credit that was undoubtedly his due.

I have always admired the way in which Murray's mind works. The next time we saw Mr. Bonar he had all his suggestions in a form as clear and compact as his monthly balance sheets used to be. The upshot of it was that the next Sunday it was requested that all interested in the erection of a church should remain after the service, and a committee was formed to gather information regarding the assistance we might depend upon.

Mr. Bonar's enthusiasm had warrant, for people who could not have given money were more than willing to give what they had. The land was already provided, Mr. Wright promised to cut the rough lumber free of charge and to get the other materials for us at cost, and one of his men who was a mason volunteered to build the foundation and the chimney if some "handy men" would help him. And when man after man had offered wood or stone or labor, Mrs. Wilson stood up and in her shy way suggested the formation of a Ladies' Aid Society.

"Maybe we can raise a little money for furnishings," she said. "There will be the stoves to get and lamps, and that seems like woman's work. And we can help with the painting and kalsomining inside."

As the news of what we were planning to do spread through the district, offers of help came from unexpected quarters.

Gwen Severn, who had not seen the inside of a church in Canada so far as I knew, said she would love to embroider the altar-cloth. Mr. Kristiansen, gratified because his children were being taught in Sunday School, gave five dollars, and then showed Murray and Mr. Macleod some of the fine wood-carving that was his hobby, and asked if there would be anything of that sort to do in the church. And Mr. Gagnon, prefacing his remarks with a shrug and the comment that "This is not Quebec," said that he and Narcisse could help with the plastering.

It was Mrs. Carsdale who came to the rescue with a brilliant suggestion that enabled us to accept Mr. Kristiansen's offer and now, though the

Price Changes of Dr. Chase's Medicines

By increasing the contents of the boxes the cost to the user remains unchanged

THIS revision of prices affects only three of Dr. Chase's Medicines—the Kidney-Liver Pills, Nerve Food and Catarrh Powder.

In spite of the constantly increasing cost of doing business ever since Dr. Chase's Medicines were placed on the market many years ago there has been no change in the prices of these three medicines to the consumer.

It has now become absolutely necessary to make some changes, but this has been worked out in such a way that the cost to the user remains the same.

The slogan for Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills will therefore remain "One pill a dose—One cent a dose," for while the price will be 35 cents instead of 25, the contents of the box will be 35 instead of 25 pills as formerly.

The same applies to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which will sell at 60 cents a box instead of 50 cents, since the contents of the box is now 60 pills instead of 50.

With the exception of Dr. Chase's Catarrh Powder, which is now 35 cents a box, the prices of Dr. Chase's other medicines remain unchanged.

Dr. Chase's Almanac has now been mailed and distributed to practically every home in Canada, 1,550,000 copies, if you did not receive yours kindly advise us and we shall mail you a copy free of charge. Edmanson Bates & Co., Limited, Dr. Chase Building, Toronto.

church is not yet finished, we have our pulpit ready—a plain oak table it is, square and strong, beautifully carved and then stained and waxed.

I was, at first, rather at a loss about Gwen's altar-cloth. She was so eager to help, and eager too, I suppose, to be in the thick of what the rest of us were doing, and was very much put out to learn that there was no altar in a Presbyterian church, much less any place for an altar cloth.

"It will be like the chapels at home, I suppose," she said with her customary tact, "an ugly little place, as bare as bare."

Possibly several of my ancestors stirred in their graves at that point, but I was reckless—Gwen's sometimes crudely expressed love of beauty was, I had always felt, the clue to the finer side of her nature. And so I took it upon myself to tell her that I was sure a table-runner would be very suitable for our church, and greatly appreciated by Mr. Bonar.

Among my stored-away treasures I found a piece of ecru embroidery linen that was, we agreed, the very material needed, and Gwen went home with her head full of ideas that she would not so much as hint to me. I greatly fear that for the next two weeks her house was neglected, for Gwen is a real artist insofar that she can never do more than one thing at a time, but the result of her handiwork was more beautiful than I had believed possible. She had dyed the linen a soft brown color, and then embroidered it in a conventional semi-eclectic design in brown and black and dull blue, with touches of gold thread blending all together.

"That gold is all right, isn't it?" she asked me anxiously. "It is just a little bit that I had left over from the last piece I did at home and I thought it would look nice with those colors."

From the World's Edge

Letter From Arctic Mailed Four Years Ago Finds Owner

Four years ago, Roald Amundsen, the explorer, mailed a letter in the far north to a friend in Minneapolis. After various adventures the communication reached its destination a few days ago, bearing on its face an epic of the postal service at the world's edge.

Eskimo carriers and dog teams, who started with the letter, had succumbed to cold and starvation, and their mail pouch lay for nearly four years preserved by ice and snow until last summer, when a party of Russians discovered it. They sent the letter to Amundsen's home in Norway, where his brother, Leon, forwarded it to the Minneapolis destination.

My First Child

Glen Allen, Alabama.—"I have been greatly benefited by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for bearing-down feelings and pains. I was troubled in this way for nearly four years following the birth of my first child, and at times could hardly stand on my feet. A neighbor recommended the Vegetable Compound to me after I had taken doctor's medicines without much benefit. It has relieved my pains and gives me strength. I recommend it and give you permission to use my testimonial letter."—Mrs. IDA RYE, Glen Allen, Alabama.

THANKLESSNESS

Don't you love to hear the gentle voice of a child say, "Thank you?" Don't you like to see a girl or boy that feels and shows gratitude? Everything in Nature seems to have it!

The birds twittering in the tree-tops always seem to be chirping "Thanks." The flowers bordering the green lawn breathe out a fragrance that makes you so glad, it must be the odour of thanks! The sun is so glorious and scatters its rays so brightly, I think if you could hear it speaking as it shines, you would hear it saying, "Oh, I am so thankful I have all this power of sitting down these drops of sunlight!" When the rain sees the brown-burnt grass starting up into bright greenness, how thankful it must feel for its ability to refresh! I think even the wind is glad it can shake things up and scatter nasty germs and clean the air that people breathe!

"All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful,
The Lord God made them all."

And I really believe there is not one that is not glad and thankful for being and doing!

There is no spirit so dark, unhappy and unattractive as the one that is thankful.

Shakespeare says:
"Ingratitude, thou marble-hearted fiend,
More hideous in a child
Than the sea monster!"

And again he says:
"How sharper is it than a serpent's tooth
To have a thankless child."

Once Jesus cured ten lepers, and you know leprosy was a dreadful disease that little by little ate away the body and turned it into a rotting sore; and of the ten who were healed of that frightful trouble, only one came back to say, "I thank you!"

Isn't it a lovely sight to see the sweet spirit of a thankful heart saying it to find people who appreciate what you do—that is, who think it is worth something, for appreciation just means putting a value on, and they say so!

The Bible says, "Let the redeemed of the Lord say so."

Don't keep it to yourself. Say so! Pass it on! Tell someone you are glad they did something for you!

Everybody dislikes a girl or boy who is like a sponge, always soaking in!

I saw a lovely flower-plant. At first it was only a dirty-looking bulb. But it was put in nice clean water, in a glass, and soon beautiful white root-lets began to fill up the bottle; and one day the bulb was so glad that it was no longer a nasty earthy-looking brown bulb, but had graceful white roots, and a bud shooting out that it burst in a splendid poem of thanks; only the poem was called a flower, and its name was Hyacinth!

We all love to see a thankful life—At home it makes the atmosphere so soft and helpful—At school it straightens wrinkles of the teacher and fills the room with light—With one another it acts like good oil in an automobile. It makes things run smoother.

Drill in Schools

Military training in the schools we think to be a very excellent thing, and we hope to see it more rather than less favored in our Ontario school system. It induces to discipline and self-control in boys, it benefits their health by the exercise they must take, and it gives them training which quite possibly may enable them to assist the public interest in any emergency in which the ordinary police forces of the country may be inadequate.—The Ottawa Journal.

Powerful Medicine.—The healing properties in six essential oils are concentrated in every bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, forming one of the most beneficial liniments ever offered to the use of man. Many can testify as to its power in allaying pain, and many more can certify that they owe their health to it. Its wonderful power is not expressed by the small price at which it sells.

KEEP LITTLE ONES WELL IN WINTER

Winter is a dangerous season for the little ones. The days are so changeable—one bright, the next cold and stormy, that the mother is afraid to take the children out for the fresh air and exercise they need so much. In consequence they are often cooped up in overheated, badly ventilated rooms and are soon seized with colds or grippes. What is needed to keep the little ones well is Baby's Own Tablets. They will regulate the stomach and bowels and drive out colds, and by their use the baby will be able to get over the winter season in perfect safety. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JANUARY 20

Moses Called to Deliver Israel

Golden Text.—By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to share ill treatment with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season. Hebrews 11:24,25.

Lesson.—Exodus 1:1 to 12:36. Devotional Reading.—Psalm 130.

The Text Explained and Illumined

1. Moses the Shepherd, verse 1. For forty years Moses was a shepherd in the employ of Jethro, a priest of Midian, whose daughter he married. "The mission of freeing his people seemed altogether at an end. (See The Historical Background.) The world had no need of him. He was not only ignored; he was forgotten. The gifts which he must have recognized in himself had seemingly no purpose. Both he and they were apparently to be thrown away. Keeping sheep was all he was fit for, and during the years of what we should call his prime he kept them patiently. Moses in Midian is an example of the value of monotony. Waiting years can be years of gathering force. They can be years of self being filled like a well or a reservoir, with creative strength. Only in solitude, or at least in quietude, can this ever be accomplished. A life that too early drains its resources, as Moses had been impelled to drain his, is emptied before its real work has begun. A restless life, frittered away on trivial things, can never be anything but a rapid life. The years in which men and women seem never to get beyond drudgery, but go on with drudgery faithfully, are often those in which the spirit is gathering impetus for further pushing on" (Basil King).

In the course of his duties Moses led his flock to "the back of the wilderness," that is, to the wider part of the Peninsula of Sinai. In designating the points of the compass the Hebrews faced the east; the east was spoken of as in front, or before, and the west as the back, or behind. He found himself at Horeb, called here "the mountain of God," the sacred mountain, either because here God especially manifested Himself to Moses, or in anticipation of the events recorded later in Exodus. "Modern men and women who reckon it unspiritual to call any place sacred because God is everywhere, may condemn themselves to finding him nowhere" (Peake).

II. Moses's Initiation Into the Fellowship and Purposes of the Holy and Compassionate God. Characteristic of the region where Moses found himself are the thorny acacias, and from one of them which was aflame and yet was not consumed, God met and challenged Moses. "I will turn aside now, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt," is Moses's thought. "It is good to come to the place of God's presence, however," observes Bishop Hall; "God may perhaps speak to thy heart, though thou come but for novelty."

"Earth's crammed with heaven,
And every common bush afire with God;
But only he who sees, takes off his shoes—
The rest sit around it and pluck blackberries" (Mrs. Browning).

"Our awakened mind is the first condition of transformed life. We cannot reach God by mere thinking, but the mind is God's chosen avenue to the life. If the mind is hopelessly asleep, God is barred out. The first thing to get a man to do is to pay attention to the signs of God's presence within him or without him. The great reason why men do not find God is that they do not trouble to pay attention to his doings" (Gillie).

Are These Didsbury People?

Last night there was a little gathering in town of a few of our prominent men at Eddy Jones. Eddy keeps a boarding house. Around the table sat his wife, Mrs. Jones, Tim Lyman, who runs the dry goods store and millinery shop. Mr. Horrigan, the baker, Eddy Beckett the flour and feed and coal dealer, and Mr. Honey the grocer.

When supper was over, Mr. Jones took $10 out of his pocket and handed it to Mrs. Jones with the remark that there was $10 towards the $20 he had promised her. Mrs. Jones handed the bill to Mr. Lyman saying "That pays for that new hat I got for Christmas."

Mr. Lyman in turn handed it to Mr. Honey, the grocer, remarking that it would just cover his account exactly. Mr. Honey handed it to Mr. Horrigan requesting him to apply it on his bread account, and Mr. Horrigan passed it on to Mr. Beckett to apply on his flour bill. Eddy Beckett handed it to Mr. Jones asking him to credit it on his board bill.

Mr. Jones again passed the bill to his wife, saying that he had now paid the $20.00 he had promised her. She in turn, paid it to Mr. Horrigan to settle her bread bill. Mr. Horrigan passed it on to Mr. Honey to apply on his grocery account, and he in turn, handed it to Mr. Lyman to pay for those clothes he got last week for the kids. Mr. Lyman passed it back to Mr. Jones telling him it would apply on that note that would be due next month.

Mr. Jones put the bill back in his pocket observing he had not supposed a greenback could go so far.

But supposing Mrs. Jones had bought that hat from Eaton's or Simpson's in Winnipeg, then the $10 would have gone out of town and never came back.
